

ARMED FORCES DAY
26 JUNE 2021

Wartime Hospitals in Dacorum

Scan the QR code for children's activities and to discover how Dacorum provided hospital provision for wounded soldiers during WWI and WWII

Top: The emergency hospital at Ashridge. The first 500 patients in the huts were those wounded at Dunkirk (DACHT : 62.21.1)

Middle: Hemel Hempstead Red Cross during the Second World War. Red Cross personnel staffed the wards of Ashridge emergency hospital. (DACHT : 432.67.11)

Bottom: Colourised photograph of Soldiers and VAD nurses at West Herts Hospital (DACHT : 856.65)

